Foreword

From time to time a collection is consigned for Auction which presents an interesting new challenge.

The Festival of Britain collection within this catalogue is extensive and covers a wide range of collecting interests, I hope you will find some items of interest!

There is also a good range of Books, including some First Editions and several signed. We finish with some clocks for restoration and a scarce gold Rolex watch just in time for Christmas.

Best wishes to all.

David W James

Fairs
