Foreword

Welcome to our June auction! This month we have some very interesting lots including a range of militaria, including wartime posters, medals and uniforms; also collections of stamps and coins, and interiors with early tapestries and bygones.

The sale will also include a lifetime collection of military postcards, and an extensive postcard collection of Swaffham (Est £400-£500).

Finally, there is plenty of fascinating ephemera including advertising, autographs, books, toys, cigarette packets and some original Beatles memorabilia.

Some very good lots, viewing is by appointment with 24 hours' notice please!

Good luck to all your bids.

Kind regards

David W James

- 879 British Military 'Vee Tee' Slide Rule Instrument – c.1920s. This unusual slide rule instrument is designed for military vehicle logistics. It is similar in design to a version (thought to be slightly later) known as the MT Rule. The Vee Tee Meter is intended to be used for calculating the length of a column of vehicles and the time it takes them to pass a given position. It consists of a closed frame duplex stock of laminated plastic (ivorine), held together with four pins, and a double-sided slide. It comes in a brown leatherette pouch. On the front of the meter there are two scales on the stock: Vehicles (number of) and Times Past S.P. The slide also has two scales: V.T.M. (vehicles to the mile) and M.P.H. On the reverse, there is a small window where Length of Column in Yards & Miles can be read from the reverse of the slide. The reverse also bears the legend 'Vee Tee Meter'. There is no manufacturer's mark. Scarce £30 - £40

FIGHT THE MOTH

IT'S THE MOTH GRUB THAT DOES THE DAMAGE

CLOTHES-MOTHS lay eggs. All the damage is done when the eggs hatch into larvae, which feed on wool and fur exactly as caterpillars do on cabbage leaves. The only CERTAIN way to prevent your things from getting moth-eaten is to destroy the eggs and kill the grub.
